

K-Love is a great asset to our community. It is essential that we have family-positive FM alternatives available. There is a large listening audience among our young adults and it would be detrimental to have this option replaced by LPFM. K-Love listens to its listeners/supporters and responds positively. Thank you.